

Global Outlook 2025 Report

The Global Outlook 2025 Report delivers the 9th annual forecast from William Stickevers, synthesizing data-driven geopolitical, economic, and astrological insights. This year's edition highlights key turning points in global finance, technology, and governance while preparing readers for rapid systemic shifts. With in-depth analysis and live review session highlights, the 2025 report equips leaders, professionals, and truth-seekers with foresight to navigate turbulence in the months ahead.

Global Outlook 2024 Report

The Global Outlook 2024 Report provided a critical roadmap into the unfolding year, blending geopolitical forecasting with mundane astrology to reveal hidden drivers of change. From escalating energy crises to financial realignments and shifting power blocs, the report offered members and attendees a comprehensive set of scenarios for navigating uncertainty. It set the stage for discussions that carried into 2025, giving readers a baseline for how larger cycles would reshape the global order.

Global Outlook 2023 Report

The Global Outlook 2023 Report focused on a transformative year marked by disruptive technologies, shifting alliances, and war-driven economic restructuring. From the rise of ChatGPT and AI adoption to the deepening effects of the Russia-Ukraine conflict, the report detailed both opportunities and systemic risks. It also examined commodity realignments and the early signs of global debt crises, providing readers with actionable foresight at the threshold of a new digital and geopolitical era.

Global Outlook 2022 Report

The Global Outlook 2022 Report chronicled one of the most consequential years of the decade, capturing the outbreak of the Russia-Ukraine war and its cascading economic fallout. Integrating geopolitical risk analysis with planetary cycles, the report anticipated accelerated inflation, energy instability, and structural changes in trade and finance. For readers and members, it served as both a warning and a guidebook for navigating the rapidly shifting terrain of a post-pandemic world order.

Global Outlook 2020 Report

The Global Outlook 2020 Report was a pivotal forecast that anticipated the massive disruptions triggered by the COVID-19 pandemic. Identifying early signals of a coming global recession, the report outlined the breakdown of established systems and the emergence of emergency governance responses. Its insights into healthcare, financial stability, and societal restructuring proved prescient, making this one of the most significant editions in the Global Outlook series.

Global Outlook 2019 Report

The Global Outlook 2019 Report offered foresight into mounting geopolitical tensions and economic volatility ahead of the decade's turning point. Covering potential flashpoints such as the U.S.–Iran conflict, rising populism, and structural fragility in global markets, the report gave readers a vantage point on the forces that would soon dominate headlines. By situating these events within long-term astrological cycles, it provided a powerful perspective on the lead-up to the global reset of the 2020s.
